Introduction

The Institute of Objective Studies (IOS) winter school programme in Islamic Studies is being conducted with a view to impart basic but deep knowledge to the university/college students pursuing professional disciplines like BA and Masters in business studies, science, computer science, engineering and medicine etc.

It is also an outreach programme to a new and larger audience particularly the students who are future leaders in medical science, technology and business studies. These students are a very bright section of the young generation with potentials to become leaders and decision makers in their respective fields. It is, therefore, very necessary to acquaint them with the fundamental teachings of Islam as well as the great role that Islam played in the making of global human civilization. This programme is being jointly organized with the Department of Islamic Theology, Aliah University in Kolkata, West Bengal.

Core Courses

1. Islam as Faith and Civilization
2. Revelation and Its Application (Focus on sources of Shariah that led to the emergence of Fiqh)
3. Fundamentals of Islam, Islamic sciences
4. Islam and Knowledge
5. Non-Muslims in Islam and Muslim History
6. Islam and Multi-culturalism
7. Women in Islamic Society
8. Islam in 21st Century
9. Islam and World Peace
10. Islam and Modernity/Westernization (Islam and Secularism, Islam and Terrorism, Islam and Sectarianism, Islam and Contemporary World, Islam and Women, Islam and Globalization)

The above themes have been selected keeping in mind the students and their need to know and understand how Islam is relevant, and can become the major players in the world we are living in. The focus is on being relevant, both religiously and professionally.

Objectives

1. To equip the students with basic and deep knowledge about Islam as faith and source of global Islamic civilization.
2. To educate about the Islamic worldview and how Islamic Sciences, Quran, Hadith and Fiqh developed.
3. To enable students understand and analyse the Muslim contribution to world human civilization and how Islamic intellectual renaissance is possible.
4. To prepare students how to cope with the challenges of modernity and westernization from an Islamic perspective.
5. To equip students with the Islamic knowledge to live and succeed in the globalized world as followers and torch-bearers of Islam.
