

Workshop on

Impact of Islamic Law in the Contemporary Indian Legal System

[December 24, 2019]

Organized by

[Department of Law, Aliah University, Park Circus Campus, Kolkata in association with Council on Legal Studies, New Delhi]

The Department of Law, Aliah University, Kolkata in association with Council on Legal Studies, New Delhi is organizing a National Level Workshop to address the issue of influence of Islamic law on legal systems all around the world. It aims at first on providing a platform for initiation of an academic discourse of all concerned with Indian legal system. Second, it seeks to help generate some energy for legislation and spur a more proactive approach of judges in administering justice.

Concept Note

Islamic law is one of the longest enduring and most widely practiced systems of law in the world. At the same time, however, it is one of the most maligned and misunderstood the system of law. The present workshop will offer listeners a firm grounding in the principles, concepts, and terminology of Islamic law, as well as its role in the contemporary era. Through discussions of both practice and theory, as well as interactive exercises, participants will gain practical insights into the sources and constructs of religious-based legal system, including the substantive difference between Shari'ah and jurisprudence, analysis of the Qur'an, Traditions of Prophet Muhammad, the Schools of law, differences between Shia and Sunni Islamic law, the advent and growth of Islam and modern resurgence of Islamic law and Islamic political movements. Participants will also gain an in-depth understanding of selected aspects of Islamic constitutionalism, Islamic criminal law, and not only how classical and contemporary Islamic law comports with international human rights law, but also how Islamic law can be misapplied and misunderstood. This National workshop will use real-world examples and interactive exercises throughout, in order to give listeners a practical understanding of these concepts, as they apply today.

Object of Workshop

The aim of the National Level workshop is to promote the exchange of knowledge and views of educationists, jurists, practicing professionals, social activists, and individuals in their areas of interest, relating to social justice and social change.
